

Ana Tomaz

National Road Safety Authority (Portugal)

Ana Tomaz is an expert in mobility and road safety and since January 2019 is Vice-President of the National Road Safety Authority.

She has developed an extensive activity in the implementation, dissemination and execution of Vision Zero in Portugal and around the world.

She represented Portugal at PIARC (World Road Association) in the Road Safety committee.

She was a member of the Board of Directors of EP-Estradas de Portugal, SA (the Portuguese road concessionaire) where she was responsible for the areas of road concessions, construction and road safety.

She was head of Road-Railway Safety Department at IP - Infraestruturas de Portugal , (the Portuguese road concessionaire) where she was responsible for the management of road safety of 15,000 kilometers of roads and railway safety of 2,500 km of railway track.

She has a degree in Civil Engineering from Instituto Superior Técnico, a post-graduate degree in Transportation also from Instituto Superior Técnico and a Master in Business Administration (MBA) from Nova School of Business and Economics and Catholic School of Business & Economics.